1945: Walter Spitzack

A photograph of a rural landscape. In the foreground, a dirt road leads towards a large, weathered wooden barn on the left. A person in dark clothing walks away from the camera on this road. To the right of the barn is a smaller wooden building with a gabled roof. The background is filled with dense green trees under a clear blue sky. Utility poles with multiple wires are visible on the right side.

1945: Schmiede (Albert Wolff)

A photograph of a rural scene under a clear blue sky with some wispy clouds. In the foreground, there's a grassy field with a simple wire fence and wooden posts. A large, dark blue tarp is spread out on the ground. To the left, there's a small, weathered wooden structure, possibly a shed or a stall. In the center, several large, round hay bales are stacked. A group of people are gathered near these bales, appearing to be working or preparing something. The background is filled with a dense line of trees and bushes, and power lines are visible against the sky.

Apr. 1992

A photograph of a rural scene. In the foreground, there is a dirt road that curves to the right. A large, shallow puddle of water sits on the left side of the road. To the left of the puddle, there is a fence and some trees. In the center of the image, there is a cluster of buildings, including a house with a red roof and a barn-like building. The sky is blue with some white clouds. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and pastoral.

A photograph of a rural or semi-rural landscape. In the foreground, there's a field of tall grass and weeds. A dirt road runs through the center of the frame. On the left, a large, light-colored building with a red roof and a window is visible. In the middle ground, there's a larger, tan-colored building with several windows and doors. Two cars are parked in front of it. Power lines are visible across the sky. The sky is blue with some white clouds.
